FISCAL YEAR REPORT | September 1, 2009 – August 31, 2010

COMMUNITY JUSTICE SUSTAINABLE LIVING

A Year of Service with a Lifelong Impact | Our Volunteers make a difference every day, sharing food with those who are hungry, caring for those who are sick, fighting for just payment for those who labor. Plus, LVC provides training, support, and formative experiences which help our Volunteers become lifelong agents of change and leaders for social justice.

Building Alliances, Dismantling Oppression | LVC is on a Journey to an Inclusive Community. We are committed to forming alliances with people of many cultures and communities to intentionally dismantle racism, sexism, and other forms of oppression within LVC, the church, and society at large. As a Reconciling in Christ organization, LVC welcomes and encourages the participation of people of all sexual orientations and gender identities.

Lutheran Roots Meet Spiritual Diversity | LVC is a Lutheran organization that promotes ecumenical and interfaith dialogue and spiritual exploration. Being Lutheran is not a requirement to join LVC, and our Volunteers and staff come from a variety of spiritual backgrounds. LVC is an independent non-profit organization, an affiliated social ministry of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), and a member of Lutheran Services in America.

Lutheran Volunteer Corps (LVC) is a national public service and leadership development organization that matches volunteers with full-time positions in social justice organizations for one year. LVC partners with over 150 social justice organizations in 16 U.S. cities.

Dear Members of the LVC Community,

LVC celebrated 30 years of ministry in 2009-10! Thank you — and congratulations! It's because of your partnership that LVC has so much to celebrate.

Inspired by the gifts of Jesuit Volunteer Corps and Mennonite Volunteer Service and the need for creative congregational responses to poverty, in 1979 Luther Place Memorial Church founded LVC in Washington, DC. Now LVC is a nationwide Lutheran social ministry, uniting people to work for peace with justice in ten states plus the District of Columbia.

Since LVC's founding, over 2000 people have served a year as full-time LVC Volunteers and hundreds of social ministries, community organizations and advocacy groups have served as placement agencies.

LVC coordinates the dedication of LVC's Volunteers, the work of the placement organizations and the generosity of our supporters to help create a more just and peaceful world. LVC also provides Volunteers opportunities to develop their leadership, address institutional oppression, and discern their vocations. Caring for creation, building community, and working for justice become life-long commitments.

LVC grew vibrantly in 2009-10. We added 15 Volunteers and placements in existing LVC cities. That's the second biggest annual increase in volunteer numbers in LVC's history.

We also laid the groundwork for 2010-11: We recruited and matched 147 Volunteers and placements and prepared to open one new LVC house in San Francisco, two houses in Georgia and two in Michigan.

We're thankful to the LVC staff members and local leaders that helped LVC form and sustain the partnerships between Volunteers and their placements. We are also grateful for the strong support of financial contributors.

In 2009-10, contributions from individuals, congregations and other organizations were the highest in LVC's history. Major grants from Thrivent and the Fund for Theological Education helped fund LVC's expansion and deepen its program for current and future Volunteers. Even with these significant grants, donations from individuals and congregations remain LVC's solid, broad base of support.

Thank you, again, for the ways you've partnered with LVC in the past. We continue to seek your partnership and leadership as LVC moves into another generation of doing justice, building community and caring for creation.

Sincerely,

Rev. Michael D. Wilker
President

LIVING SIMPLY AND SUSTAINABLY

Volunteers engage a variety of simple and sustainable living practices. They receive a monthly stipend that covers basic food, housing, healthcare and transportation expenses. Volunteers generously and creatively share their time and resources to care for the wellbeing of the earth and all its inhabitants.
